FLOOR DEBATE

March 9, 2001

LB 114

SENATOR QUANDAH: I...I...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Huh?

SENATOR QUANDAH: You're bringing me into the acupuncture debate and actually my good friend, Senator Bob Kremer, said when is Senator Chambers going to quit needling you on this particular bill.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: (laugh)

SENATOR QUANDAH: And so I did vote for Senator Hudkins' bill.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And wasn't one of the arguments that even if it doesn't do any good in a given case it's not going to do any harm?

SENATOR QUANDAH: I may have heard that, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, if this is not seen to do any harm, then what's wrong with putting it on the bill if I see where it can do some good?

SENATOR QUANDAH: I guess that's up for the body to decide.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But I'm asking your view because it's your bill. What would the harm be so that we can know whether you see any harm from your position if this amendment is adopted? If there's harm, what does that harm consist of?

SENATOR QUANDAH: I just don't see it as being necessary. It doesn't necessary further the concepts or the purpose behind the bill. And so if you're asking me if I'm going to vote for your amendment, is that what we're trying to get around, if I'm going to support your amendment, the answer is no. I wasn't planning on it.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And I didn't ask you that question because however...
